

Up to date information as of March 19, 2020

The confirmation meeting scheduled for Sunday March 22 at the Elimspport church is canceled until further notice. Pastor Mike will be posting information as time goes on.

Parish Bible Study is on hold for the time being until further notice.

Christian Crusaders on Friday March 27th is canceled.

At this point, we are developing a Parish Facebook page with updated information to be sent out as time goes by. If you know of someone who does not have Facebook but is a member of our churches, please help us get information out to the public.

We are working on developing a weekly video message from Pastor Mike for Sunday morning. A link for this will appear on our website, evpumc.org and on our Facebook page when it is developed. In the meantime, we will be using the prayer chain for announcements.

Please keep our churches in prayer during these difficult times. We are hoping to be able to have Palm Sunday services and Easter Sunday services but time will tell if that is possible.

Please keep in mind the continuing financial needs of our local churches. You can still give offerings by mail and send them to Elimspport Valley Parish
16145 S. Rt. 44 Hwy
Allenwood, Pa. 17810
Remember to mark you offering so it can be directed to your church.

We have two great churches and I know that God will carry us through this "wilderness" as we remain faithful to Him and his promises.
